

SUMMARY OF — Member — PATROL LOGS

By Detective Brad Jenkins

Below are the activities for the weeks of Sunday October 24 through November 6, 2021

As the holidays are approaching, the Harbor Beach officers would like to extend our holiday wishes! Please remember to stay safe, and for those that will be traveling, safe travels. We would also like to welcome new owners/members to the neighborhood and look forward to serving you and your family.

Sunday, Oct. 24: The neighborhood was patrolled with no reported issues. Vacation homes were checked and found secured.

Monday, Oct. 25: The neighborhood was patrolled with no reported issues. Vacation homes were checked and found secured.

Tuesday, Oct. 26 - 8:35 am: The HBI officer escorted a contractor to Mercedes Drive. Vacation homes were checked and found secured.

10:30 pm - 11:00 pm: While patrolling, the HBI officer located and notified three residents with open garage doors.

Wednesday, Oct. 27: The neighborhood was patrolled with no reported issues. Vacation homes were checked and found secured.

Thursday, Oct. 28: The neighborhood was patrolled with no reported issues. Vacation homes were checked and found secured.

Friday, Oct. 29: HBI officer received a report of a parking (traffic) concern on Laguna Drive. The officer responded and met with an off-duty FLPD officer and a realtor hosting an open house. Both the off-duty officer and HBI officer agreed that the immediate area and surrounding area would be monitored for traffic concerns. Valet employees controlling the parking for the event were warned if any traffic violations occurred, the vehicle would get cited.

While the HBI officer was checking the vacation homes, a garage door on Lucille Drive was found unsecured. The caretaker/property manager was notified and the residence was secured.

Saturday, Oct. 30 thru Wednesday, Nov. 3: The neighborhood was patrolled with no reported issues. Vacation homes were checked and found secured.

Thursday, Nov. 4: Vacation homes were checked and found secured. A member notified the HBI officer about a fisherman on W. Lake Drive. The officer responded but was unable to locate the described individual.

Friday, Nov. 5: Vacation homes were checked and found secured. The HBI officer made contact with a landscape truck causing traffic issues. The HBI officer directed the driver of the truck to park correctly while working in the neighborhood.

Saturday, Nov. 6: The neighborhood was patrolled with no reported issues. Vacation homes were checked and found secured.

No further action to report and as always if there are any questions or concerns feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Detective Brad Jenkins
